Please include in our prayers:

- for all members of our Parish family to be blessed with a happy and peaceful New Year;
- for peace throughout the world, especially in light of the USA's intervention in Venezuela;
- for the sick, both at home and in hospital;
- for our Archbishop Elect of Canterbury, the Rt Revd Sarah Mullally;
- for all our school children having started the Spring Term.

'This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.'
Matthew 3.17

Collect

Eternal Father, who at the baptism of Jesus revealed him to be your Son, anointing him with the Holy Spirit: grant to us, who are born again by water and the Spirit, that we may be faithful to our calling as your adopted children; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion

Lord God, the bright splendour whom the nations seek: may we who with the wise men have been drawn by your light discern the glory of your presence in your Son, the Word made flesh, Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Vicar writes...

In all three synoptic accounts, the descent of the Holy Spirit and the voice from heaven make Jesus' baptism remarkable. Matthew adds detail of the prior exchange between Jesus and John over precedence which further emphasises the distinctiveness of the occasion. It is a radical act of humility as the Son of God fully inhabits his humanity. However, to focus too closely on what sets Jesus apart risks distracting us from the equally radical and humbling truth that baptism is the highest vocation of each and every one of us, as we are called by name and proclaimed as precious in God's sight.

(Based on the Gospel for Sunday: Matthew 3.13-17.)

Marimba Band. New classes are starting in February on a Monday evening. No previous musical skills required. For further information, contact chantry.janet@gmail.com

Friends of Great Missenden Parish Church (Regd. Charity No. 1067435). The Trustees/Committee members are pleased to make a grant of £300 for the recent gutter/downpipe cleaning. This is our fifth such grant this year as so many leaves and seeds from the trees around the church have been blown into the gutters during the summer and autumn!

We wish everyone a very Happy New Year.
